Life's A Game

HOW

Will

YOU Play?

This year's theme was developed from the idea of the game of LIFE. Life is full of important choices that lead you down varying paths. How you guide your life will determine your destiny. Each section divider in this book demonstrates how the game is played throughout high school. Hopefully, each student at Elba High School has made the right decisions throughout this past year and will continue to make them until the end of his or her high school career. It has been a joy publishing this yearbook. Countless hours of hard work have been put into each page. We hope that you enjoy your book and remember to cherish each memory made while here.

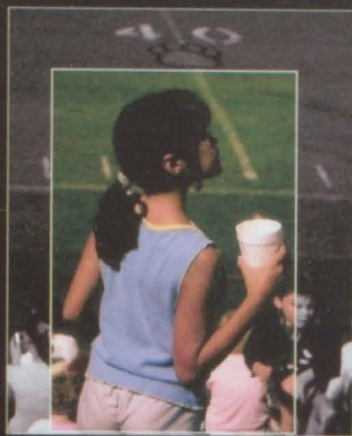

LIFE'S A GAME... HOW WILL YOU PLAY?

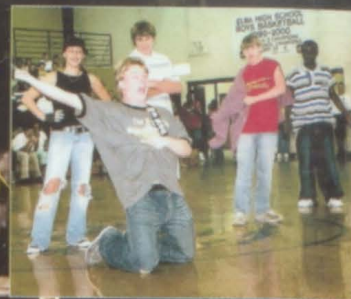

SCHOOL LIFE IS FILLED WITH MANY MEMORIES. FOOTBALL FRIDAYS, SCHOOL DANCES, AND THE END.. STEPPING ACROSS THE STAGE TO RECEIVE YOUR DIPLOMA.

SCHOOL GOES BY VERY QUICKLY, SO PLAY THE GAME WELL! SOON

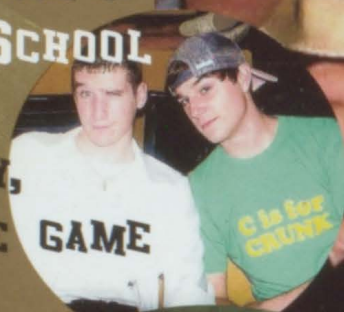

YOU'LL BE A SENIOR IN HIGH SCHOOL WITH SO MANY CHOICES TO MAKE. BE AWARE OF HOW REAL LIFE IS BECAUSE IT COMES UP ON YOU SO FAST!

Man, he's FAST!

Jamey shows his best impression of the air guitar at one of this year's hottest pep rallies!

SPIRIT

"Go Elba, Go Elba, Go" The band always keeps and "'06" are usually what football games CRUNK! you will hear coming out of this senior's mouth!

They know that they're cool!

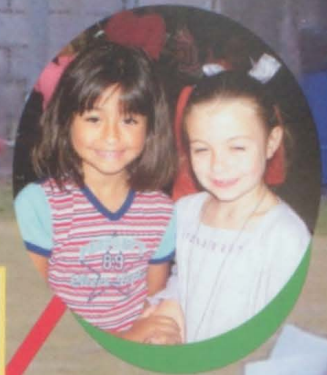

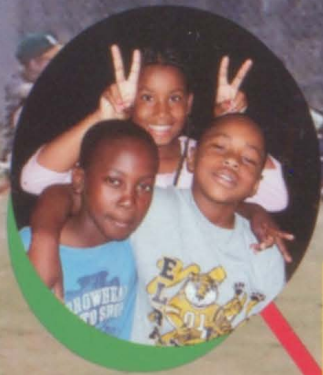

These seniors have unity on and off the field.

Duke,

I loved you from the moment I first held you in my arms as a tiny baby. Little did I know then how strong the bond between us would grow through the years. I truly believe that people come into our lives for a reason. Maybe God knew that I would not have children of my own, so he placed you into my life as a special blessing. I am forever grateful.

When I glance back over the pages of my life, they are filled with memories of you and me. Silly moments, fun times, and exciting adventure: Michael Jordan in Memphis, nothing but net! Swing level, Duke! - Kowabunga, Dude!, rocking and singing in the car!

Look at all the pretty colors (man that was a long trip.) Those are moments that I will always cherish.

I have loved the child that you were, and now I am so proud of the young man that you have become. Let your heart remain tender with compassion for others, for there is such a blessing in that. As this new chapter of your life begins, always put God first in everything you do. In him there is fullness of life, without him, there is only existence.

Thank you for choosing to let me inside your circle of family and friends. You definitely have your own special place in my heart and life. It's hard to imagine what things will be like without you here. Just know that when I think of you, as I so often will, it's the memories of the times we have shared that will always keep you close in my heart and mind. Never doubt that I will always be near to offer unconditional love and support in all that you do. May your heart's desire be fulfilled.

It's hard to believe you have finally reached this milestone in your life. Once my beautiful, curly haired little "Doodle Bug," you have grown into a beautiful, considerate, energetic young woman who shines in everything she does. As you begin your next journey, remember these things:

Always be yourself*

Stay close to the Lord, for he will always be there to help guide and direct you.*

With hard work and dedication, you can do anything you want to do, be anything you want to be, and go anywhere you want to go.*

We are very proud of you and will always be there for you.

A broken man asked a healing God for one blessing: Despite all his failings he wanted to be a Dad more than anything.

And though we're often apart, he never leaves my heart. If you've met him, you know that as far as sons go, he's the best of all time. And the end of the rhyme is that this one name belongs in the hall of fame: JAMEY is the best; you can keep all the rest!

Whit Whit, Mee Mee, Whitzer, and Tree; you have gone by many names, but most of all you have been our sunshine. When you smile that beautiful smile of yours, it just lights up a room. You are truly like a ray of sunshine. You just make life fun, and you keep us laughing. The years have gone by too fast. It just seems like yesterday that I would watch you playing with your barbies, and now I'm watching you play all your sports for your senior year.

Whit, you are such a beautiful person. You are beautiful on the outside; but more importantly, you are beautiful on the inside. You have such a caring and giving spirit. You are a leader; you lead with compassion, fairness, and integrity. You have made us all so proud of you. With your intellect and determination, you can accomplish anything. We will miss you so very much!! You know we will always be here for you no matter what. The world is a better place with you in it. It's time for you to fly. Rae,

The good Lord knew what he was doing when he made you! You are a rock with many great purposes on this earth! Always follow him. He will guide you through whatever comes your way.

You have been, and always will be, a blessing from above. You mean so much to so many. I am extremely fortunate to have been given the opportunity to share life with you as your mother. For this opportunity, I give thanks daily.

Always remember...

In every obstacle, lies opportunity....

Your honesty, wisdom, determination, thoughtful consideration of others, and wonderful, caring spirit are among your many assets. Utilize your assets wisely and seize each opportunity in the same graceful manner with which you approach each day.

Take each mountain one peak at the time...as you know, quitting is never an option. While some dream about success, others, like you, wake up and do something about it. I look forward to watching you conquer many, many mountains in the years to come.

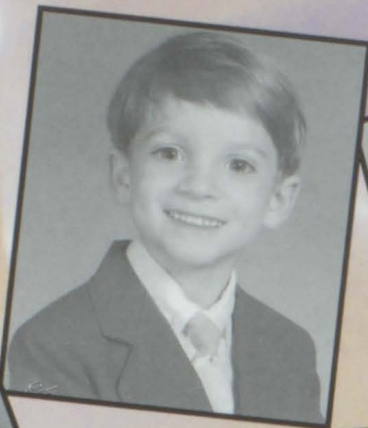

I love you dearly,

First Day of School

Jared,

I can't believe 18 years have passed so quickly. When you were very small, you and I used to read a book about a mother watching her little boy grow into a man. Through every stage of his life she sang him a song - "I'll love you forever. I'll like you for always. As long as I'm living, my baby you'll be." That story is so much more meaningful to me now than it was back then.

You have grown into such a fine young man and have made me so proud of you. Your warmth, your exuberance, and your optimism are contagious. Your unyielding faith in God inspires everyone who knows you. You are truly one of those rare people with a completely pure heart, and you fill my heart with renewed pride and joy with each passing year.

You have been the greatest gift of my life, and I know whatever path you choose for yourself will be blessed. Always know that as long as I'm living, my baby you'll be.

Love you forever,

A baby is a gift whose worth cannot be measured except by the heart. You are my child, Kikko, and you mean so much to me. It often takes years (Graduation '06) to comprehend what raising a son is all about. A few years ago, you were "just a baby, a child" but now you have developed into an extraordinary son and brother. I hope you know few things will ever mean as much to us as having a Son and a Brother like you! The 2005 Elba Tigers had another memorable season. From their record breaking win over IA powerhouse Brantley, to having three seniors sign with major college programs, the Elba Tigers once again brought pride to the black and gold nation. Although they had an early exit from the state playoffs, the Tigers fought hard and proved why they belong among the elite football programs in the state.

Student Council Association

The 05 - 06 Student Council Association consisted of four officers and 26 representatives. The purpose of each officer and representative was to promote and defend the rights of a quality education. Each member of the club was considered a voice of the student body. Each year the SCA sponsors many activities that each member is assigned to work. Over the course of the school year the SCA sponsored two different blood drives, held a bake sale to raise money for Cystic Fibrosis, held a canned food drive, sold t-shirts, and helped with concession stands at Junior Varsity football and Junior High basketball games.

As this year draws to a close, we, the editors, hope you have enjoyed this past school year. We have enjoyed bringing you each of the publications from the staff, and we hope that you will enjoy this one best of all. Our time at EHS has flown by, and we now find ourselves ready to finish our game. For some of us, our next move is college, for others, it will be their senior year. We hope you have enjoyed the game as much as we. Always remember to play the game well. What will be your next move?

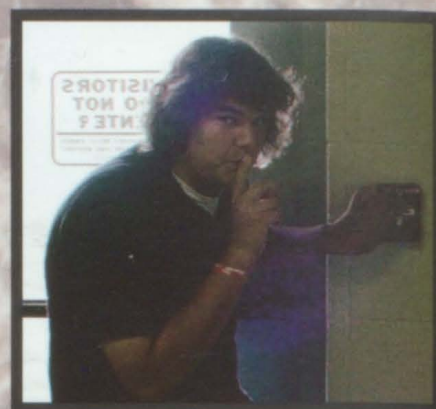

-Kayla and Tori

A special thanks to Mrs. Laura Baxley, without whom many great sports shots would not have been possible.

BROADCAST JOURNALISM

JASON JOHNSON

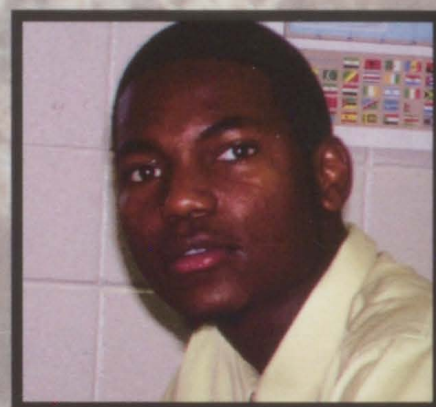

Today @ EHS

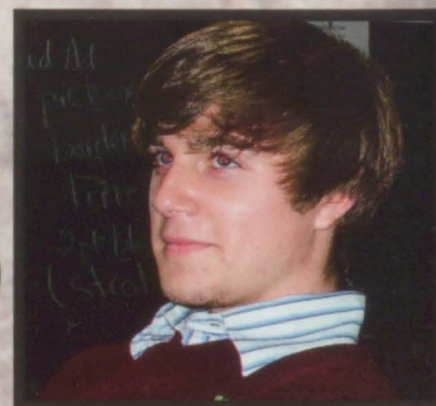

JAMEY GREEK

BROADCASTING IS AN IMPORTANT TOOL IN CONVEYING INFORMATION TO THE STUDENTS OF ELBA HIGH AND THE PEOPLE OF ELBA. BROADCAST JOURNALISM WAS STARTED IN 1996 BY MRS. CALHOUN AND AN ASSOCIATE. SEVERAL STUDENTS CAME FROM JOURNALISM TO DO THE DAILY NEWS CAST. AT FIRST, THERE WAS A LACK OF MATERIALS; BUT AS TIME PROGRESSED, THINGS GOT BETTER. THE STAFF IS RESPONSIBLE FOR EACH EDITION OF "Today @ EHS" AT THE HIGH SCHOOL. THEY ARE ALSO RESPONSIBLE FOR EACH EDITION OF "TIGER TALK" THAT AIRS ON THE LOCAL RADIO STATION WZLZ. THE TELEVISION AND RADIO PROGRAMS BOTH HELP INFORM THE PUBLIC OF THE EVENTS AND HAPPENINGS OF AND AROUND OUR VERY OWN EHS. THIS YEAR FOUR SENIORS, JAMEY GREEK, TIMOTHY JACKSON, TAMBRA OLIVER, AND REYMAR ROGERS STEPPED FORWARD TO BEAR THE RESPONSIBILITY. THEY WERE ASSISTED BY JASON JOHNSON, A JUNIOR. HE HELPED THEM ADD THEIR OWN SPECIAL GRACE TO THIS YEAR'S BROADCAST PROGRAM.

In Loving Memory

ALWAYS A BIG BAMA FAN, MR. STOKES COULD BE HEARD ECHOING "ROLL TIDE" AROUND THAT CERTAIN TIME OF THE YEAR WHEN BAMA AND AUBURN WERE BOUND TO MEET.

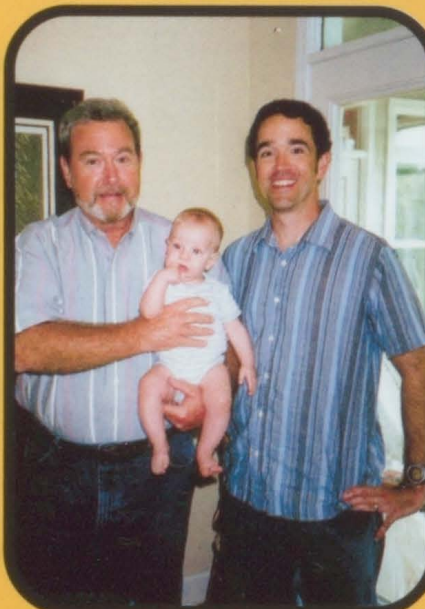

In May, 2006, Elba City Schools lost a very dedicated and loving administrator to cancer. Mr. David Stokes fought bravely, but in the end, could fight no longer. Everyone who knew Mr. Stokes knew him as a kind, gentle, giving man who always tried to do the right thing. He touched more lives than he will ever know. The 2006 ELBA staff, with great appreciation for all his help, takes great pride in dedicating this edition of the yearbook to Mr. David Stokes.

Go Tigers!

Go Tigers!

Go Tigers!

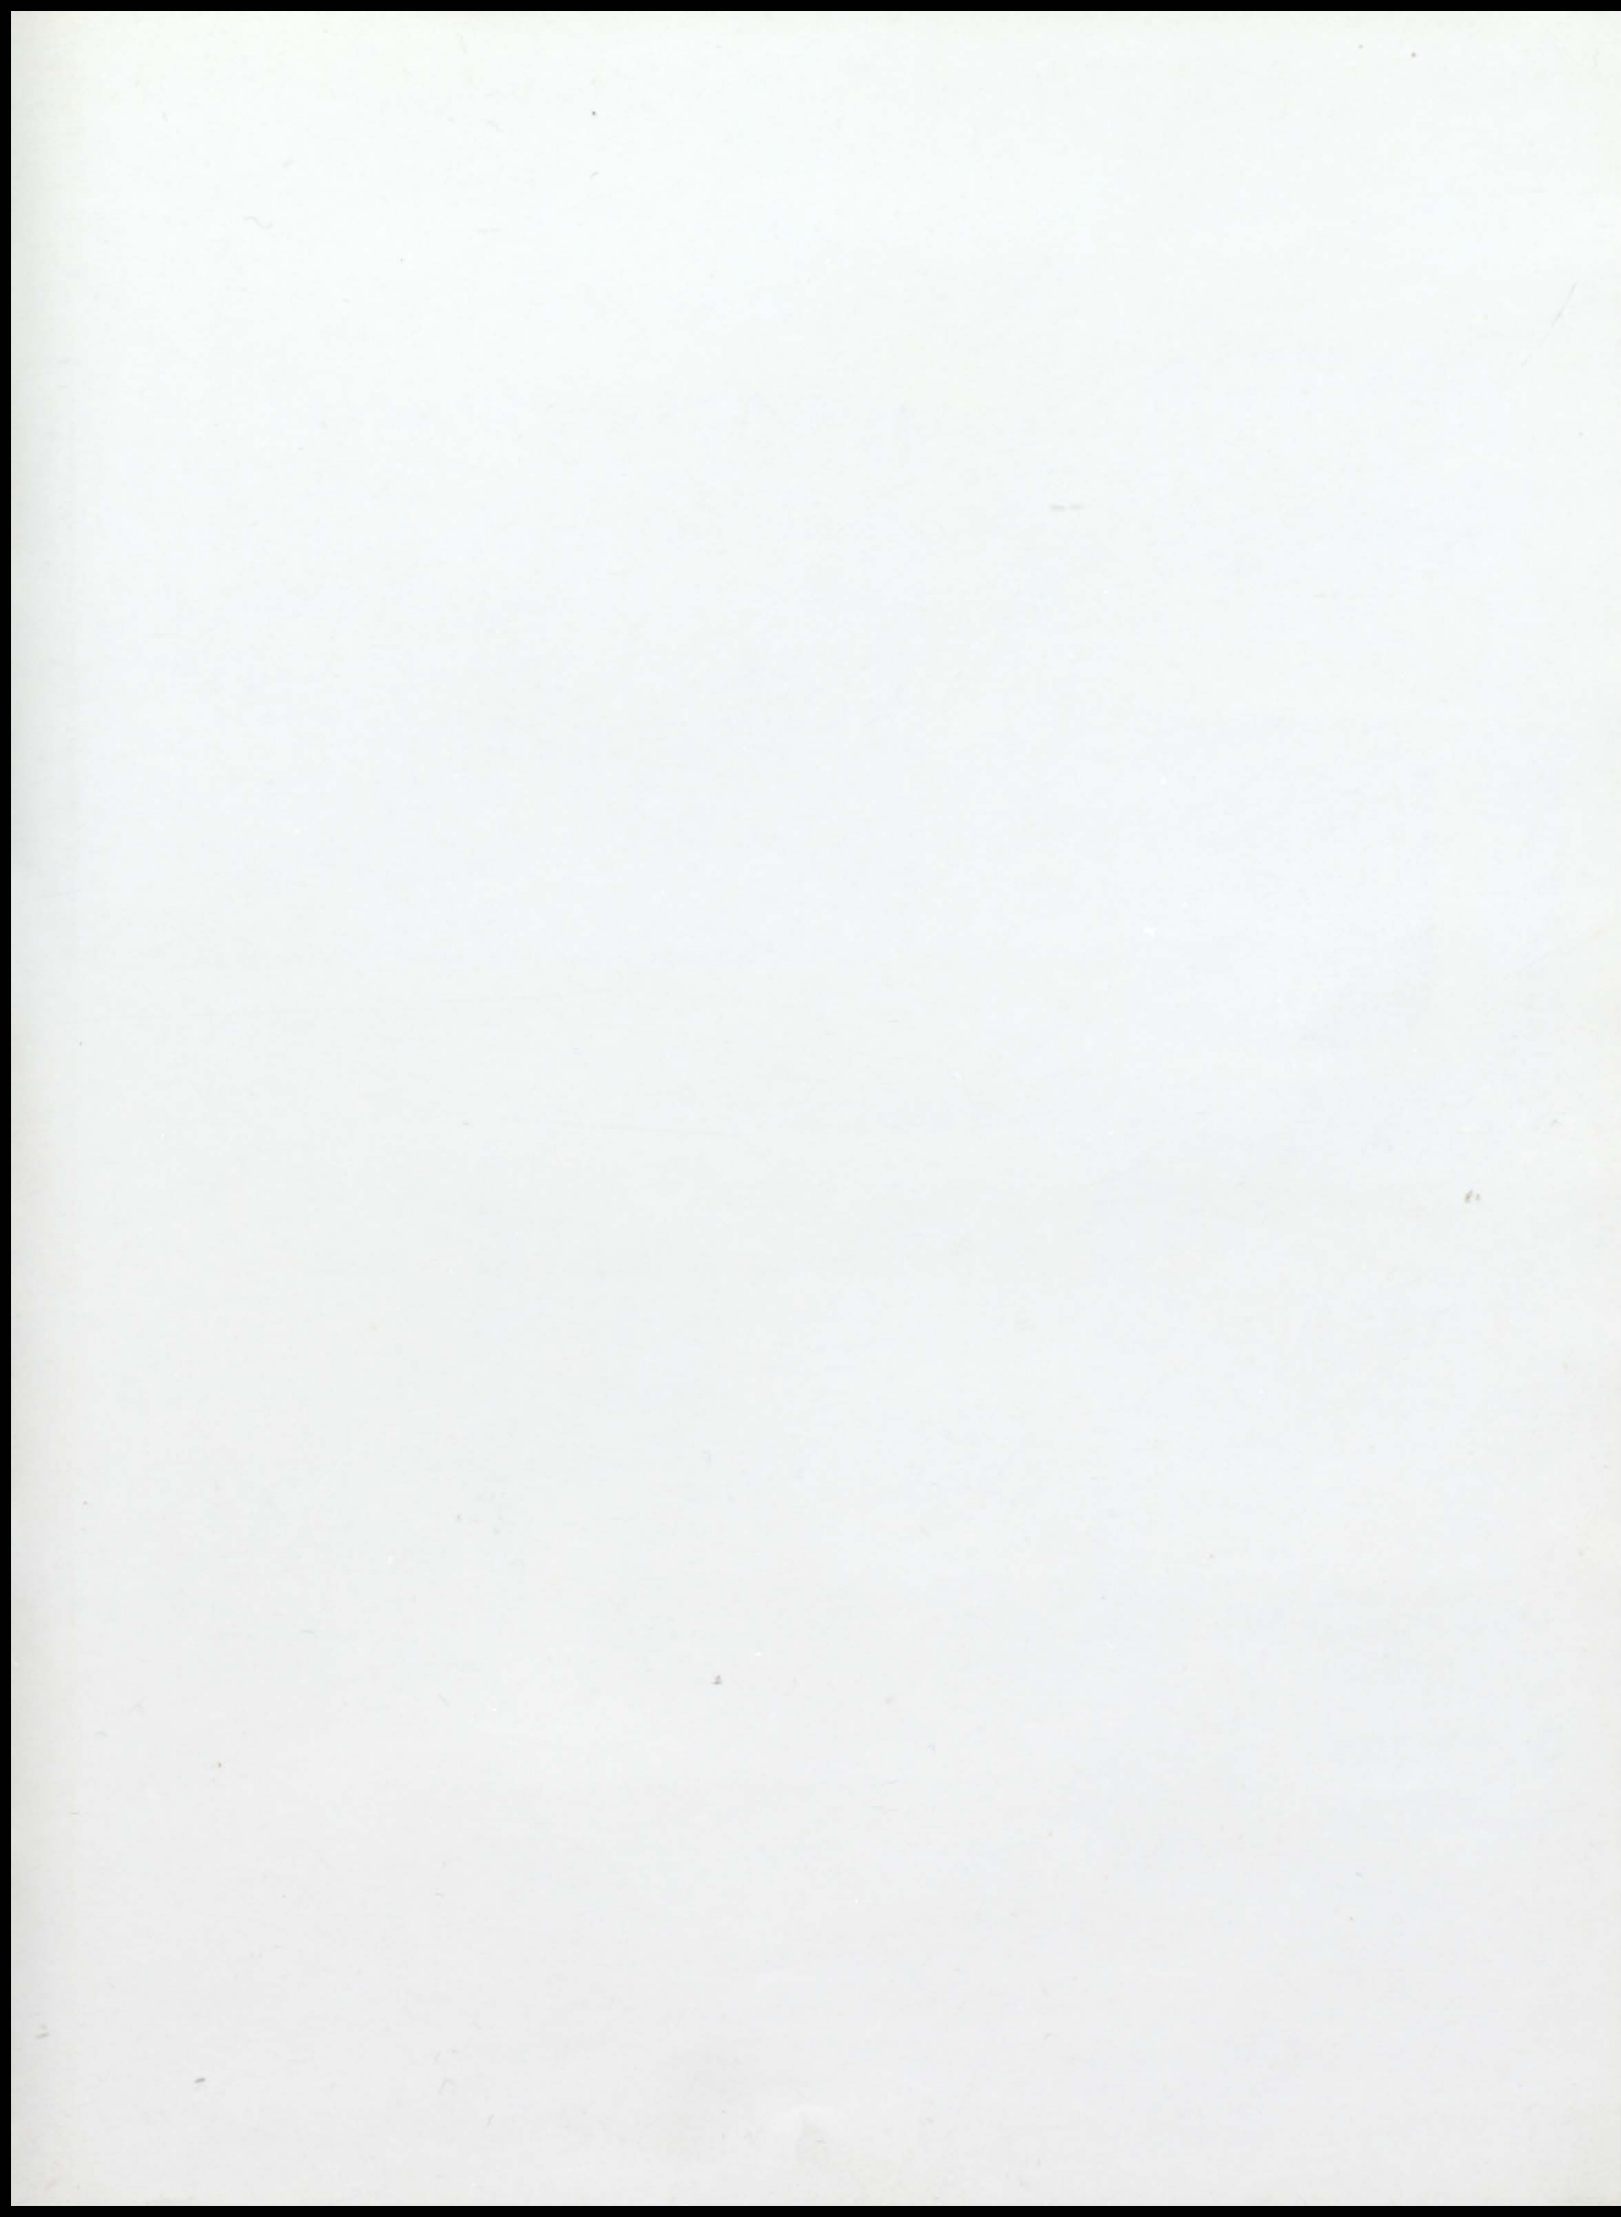

MR. STOKES WAS AN AVID SUPPORTER OF ELBA ATHLETICS; AND WAS ON THE SIDELINE AT MANY EVENTS!

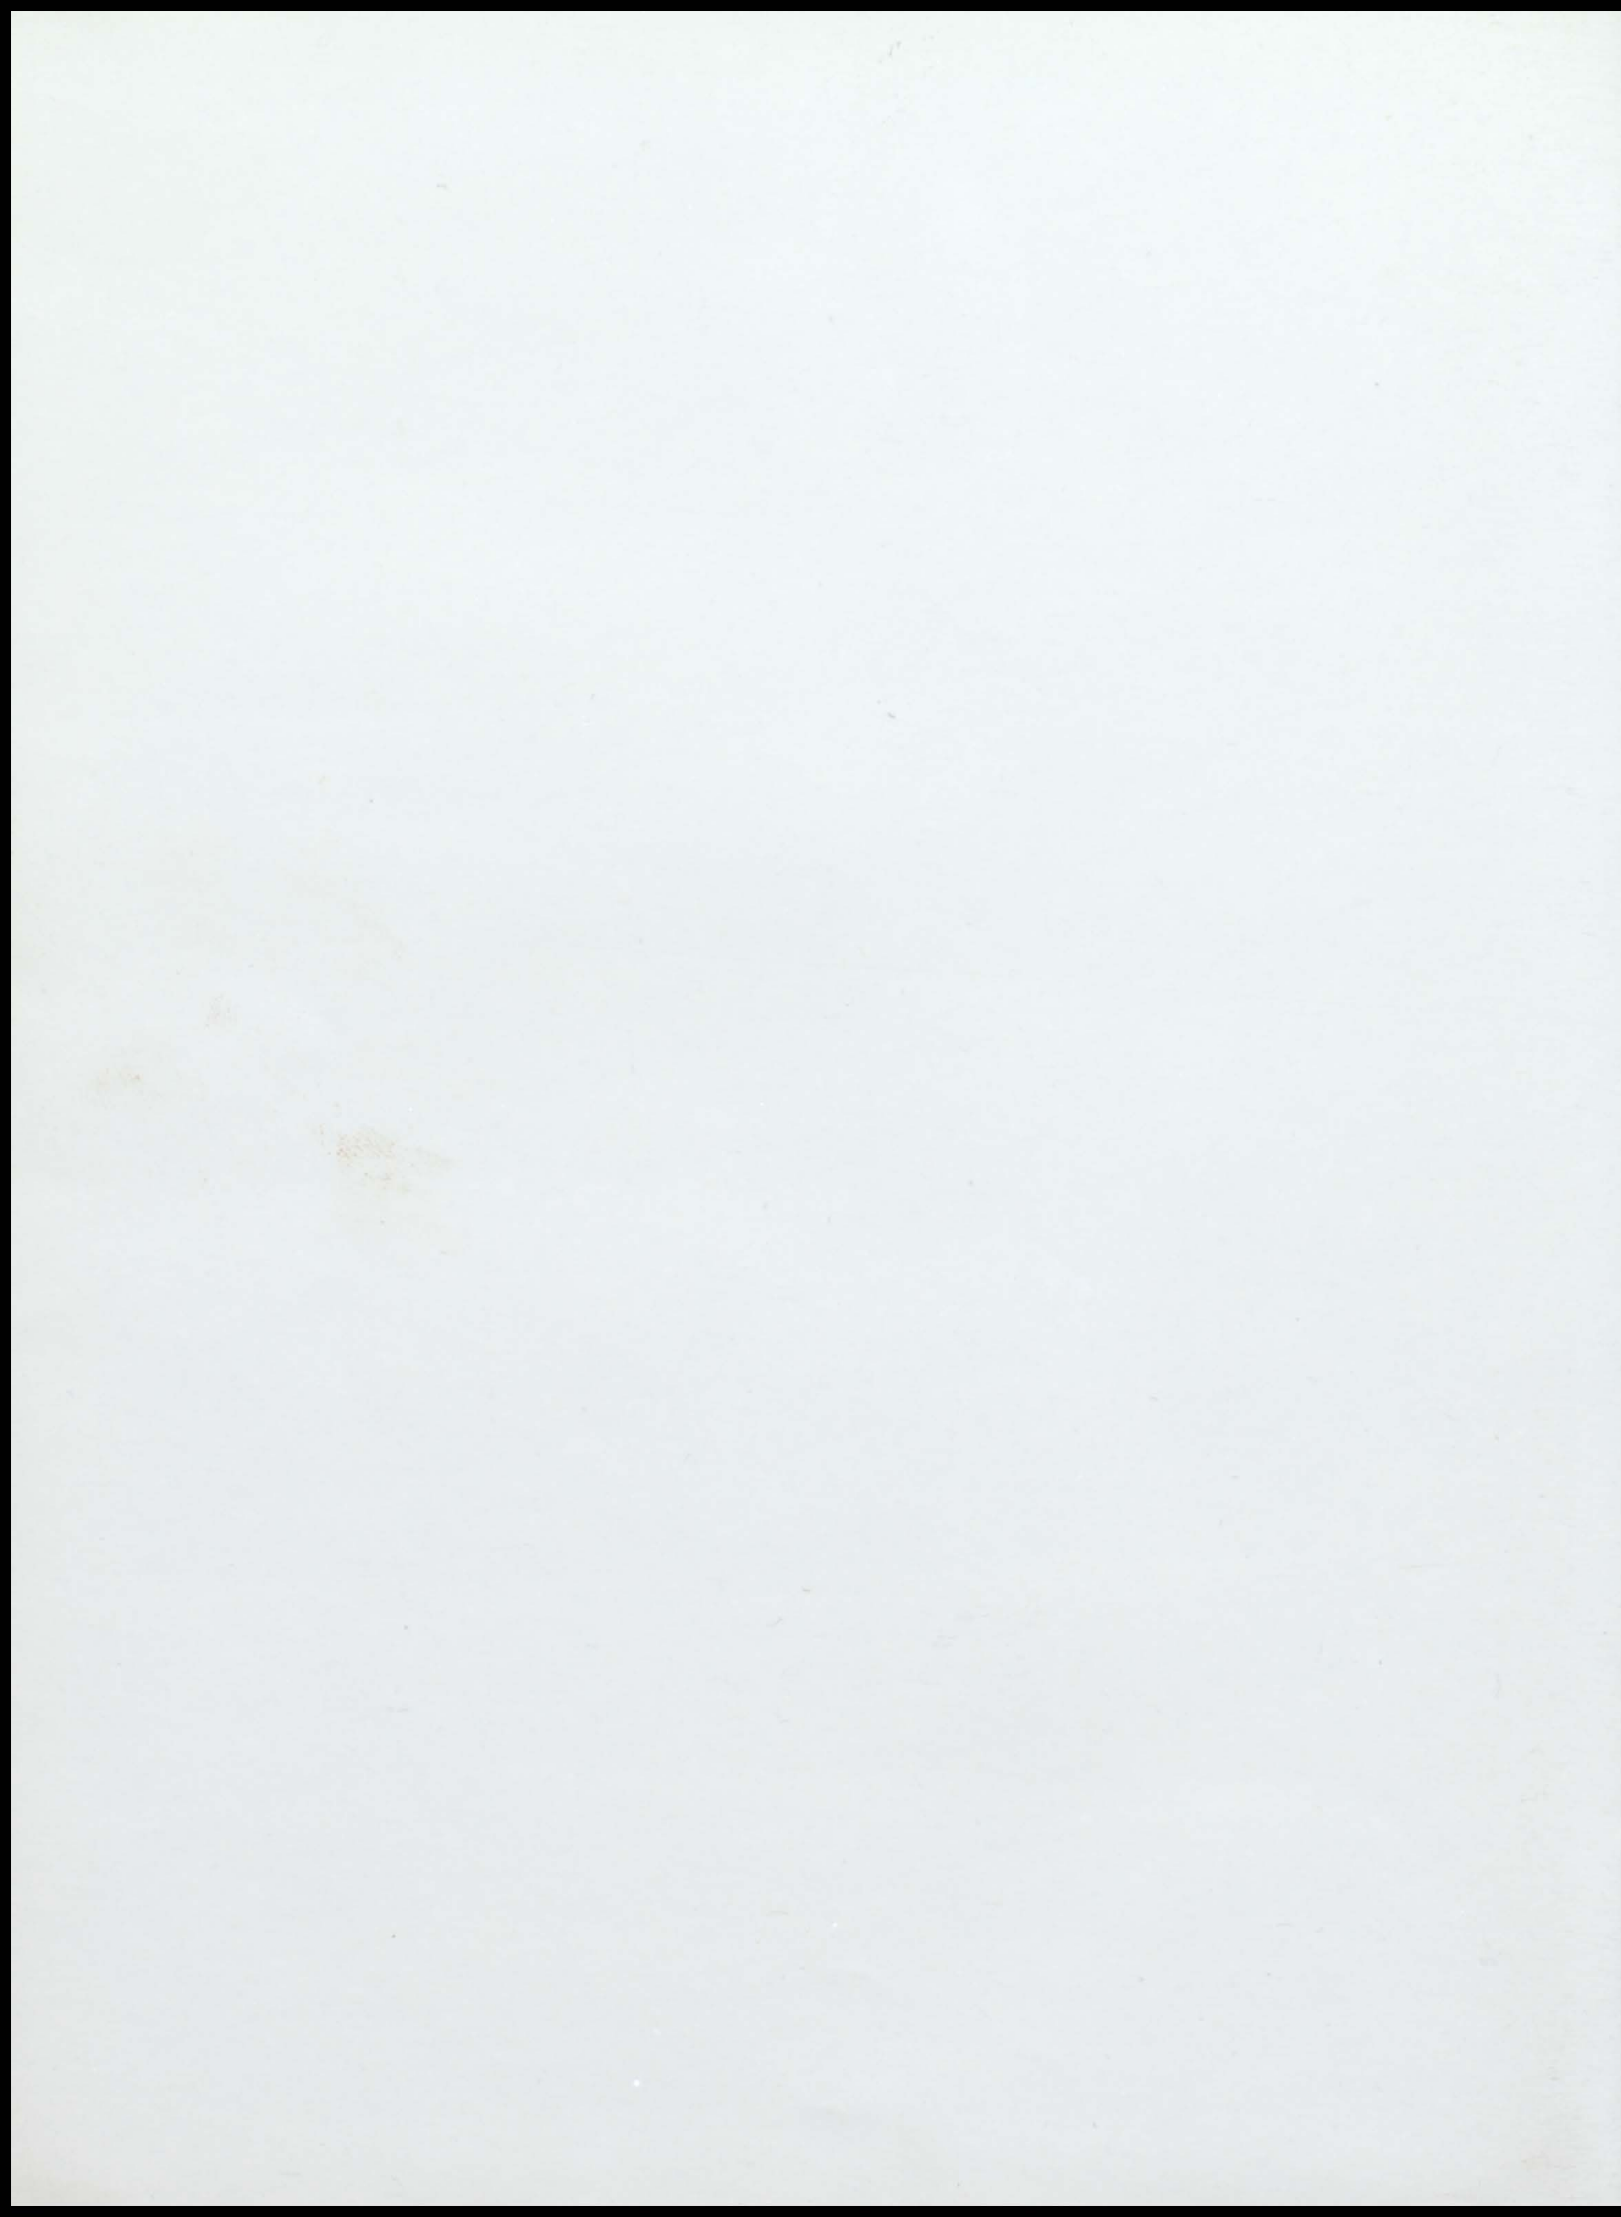

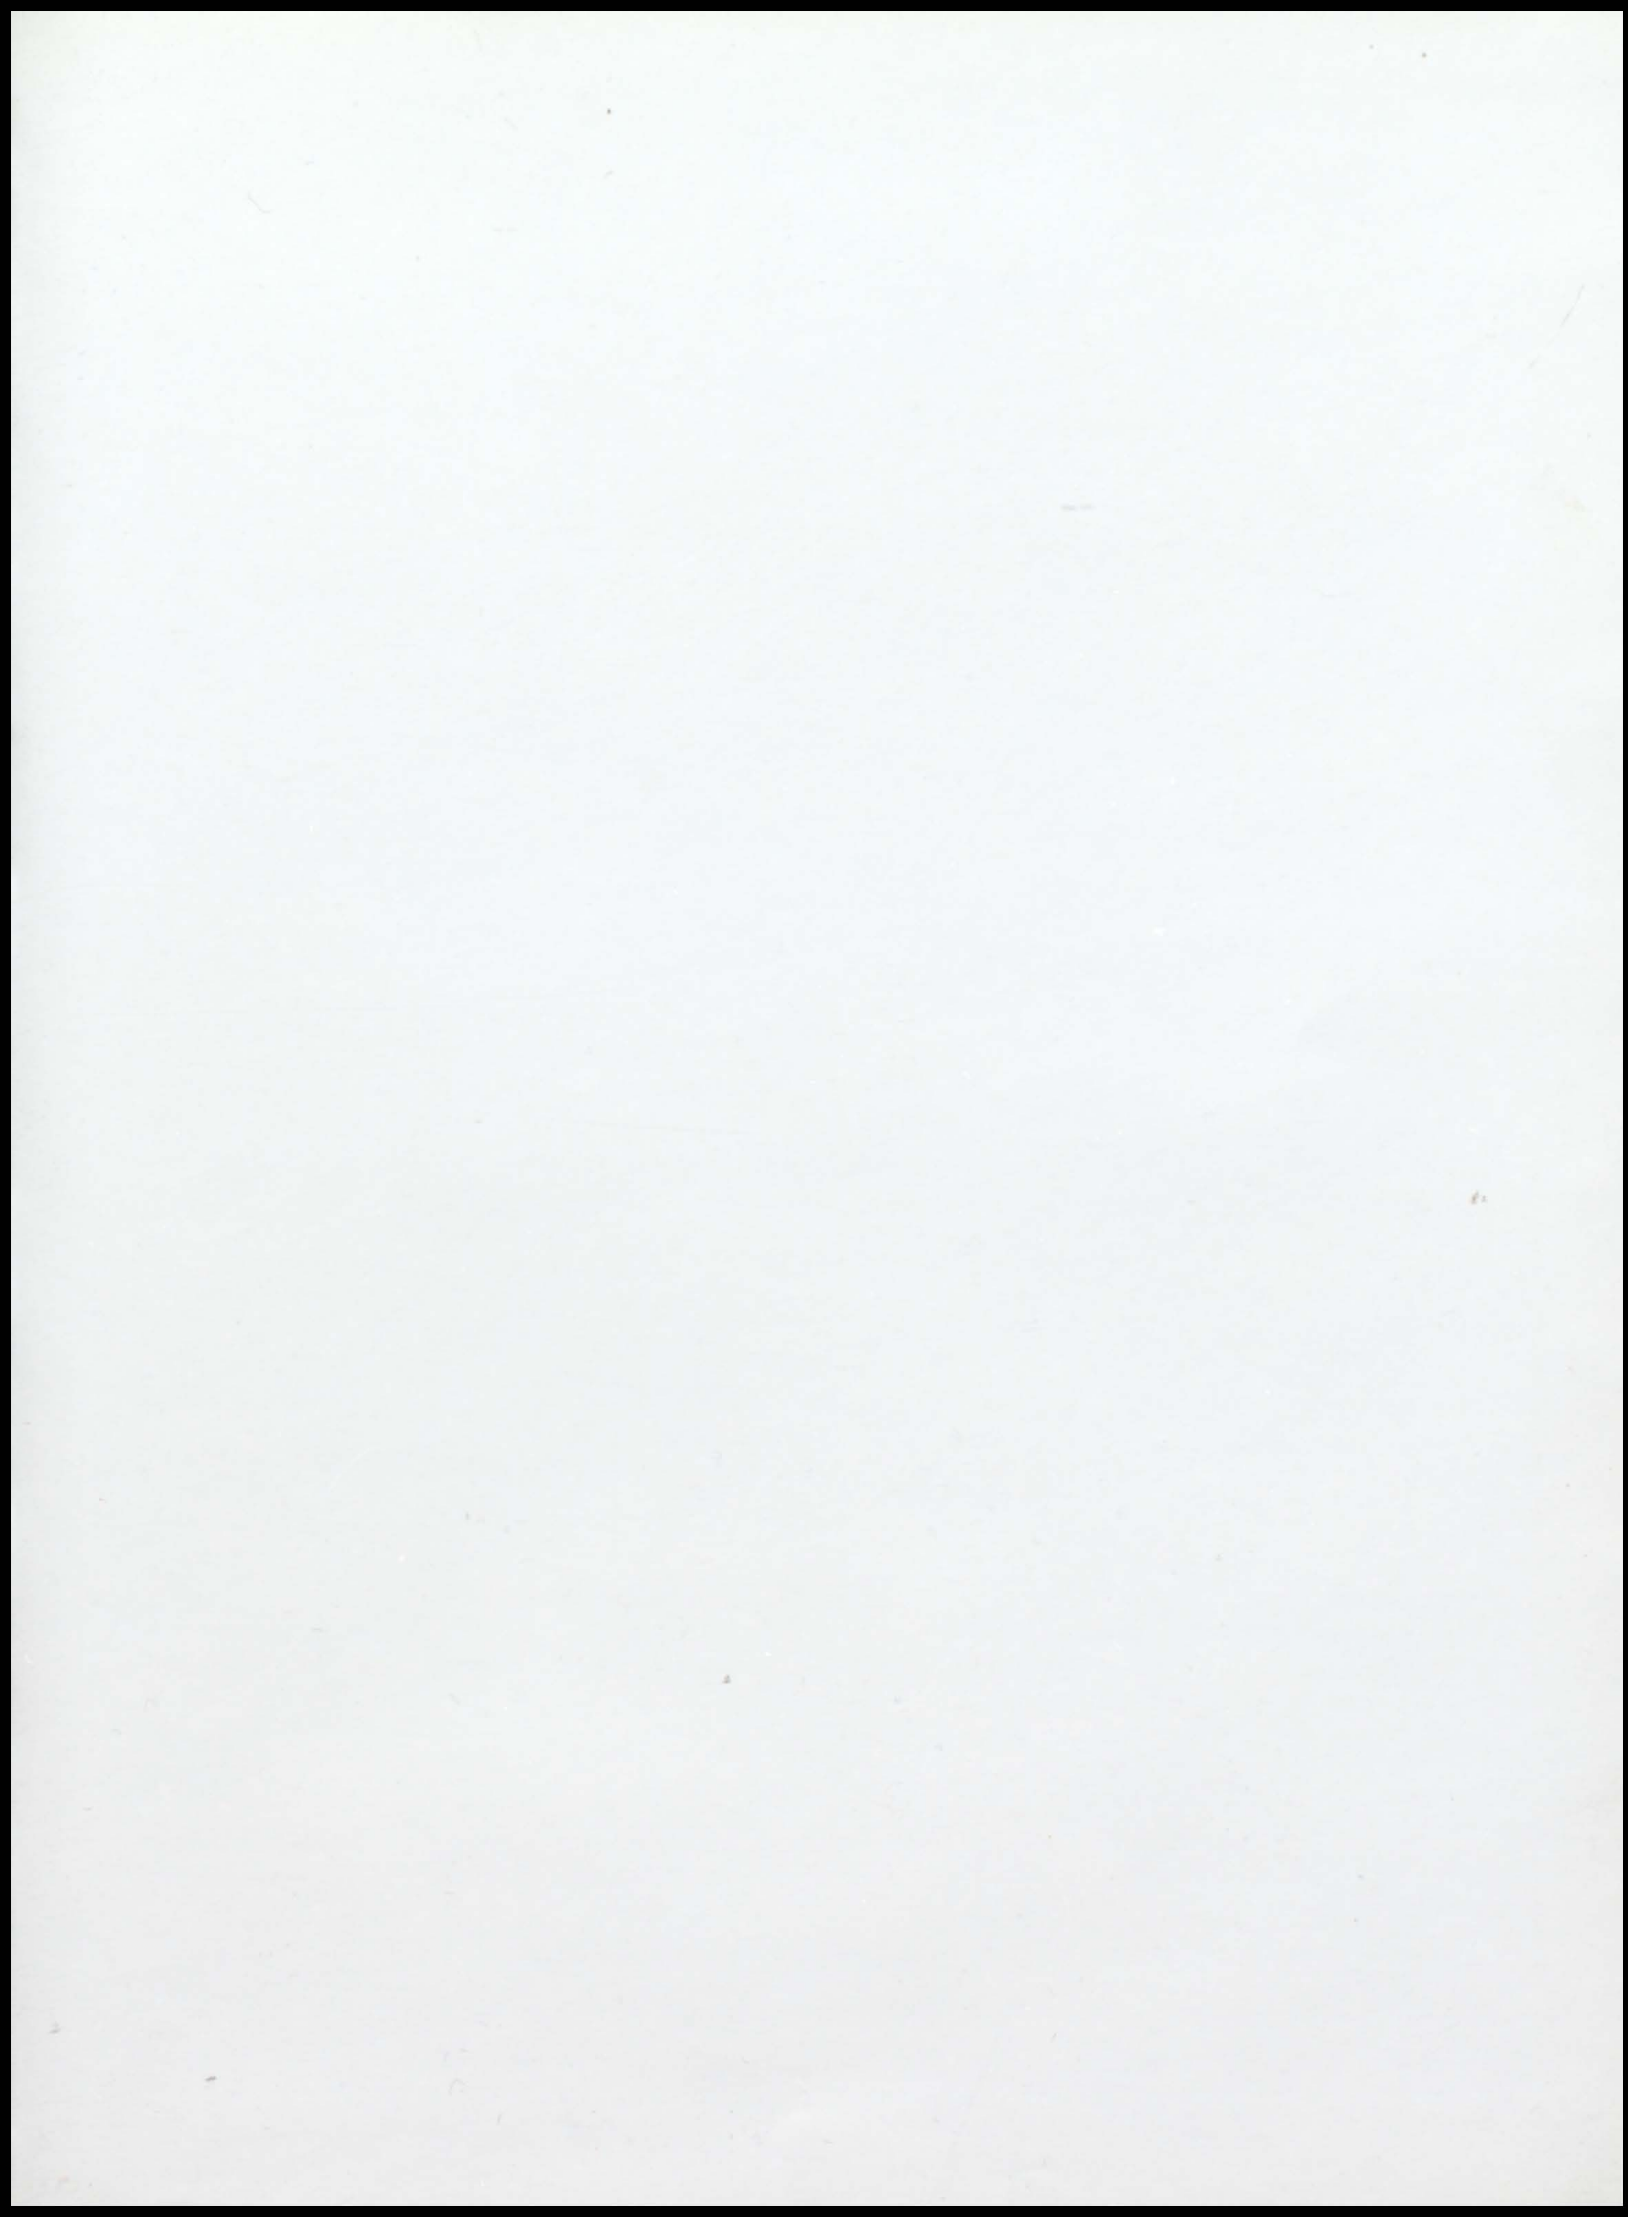

MR. STOKES LOVED RIDING HIS MOTORCYCLE— AND COULD OFTEN BE SEEN CRUISING AROUND TOWN.

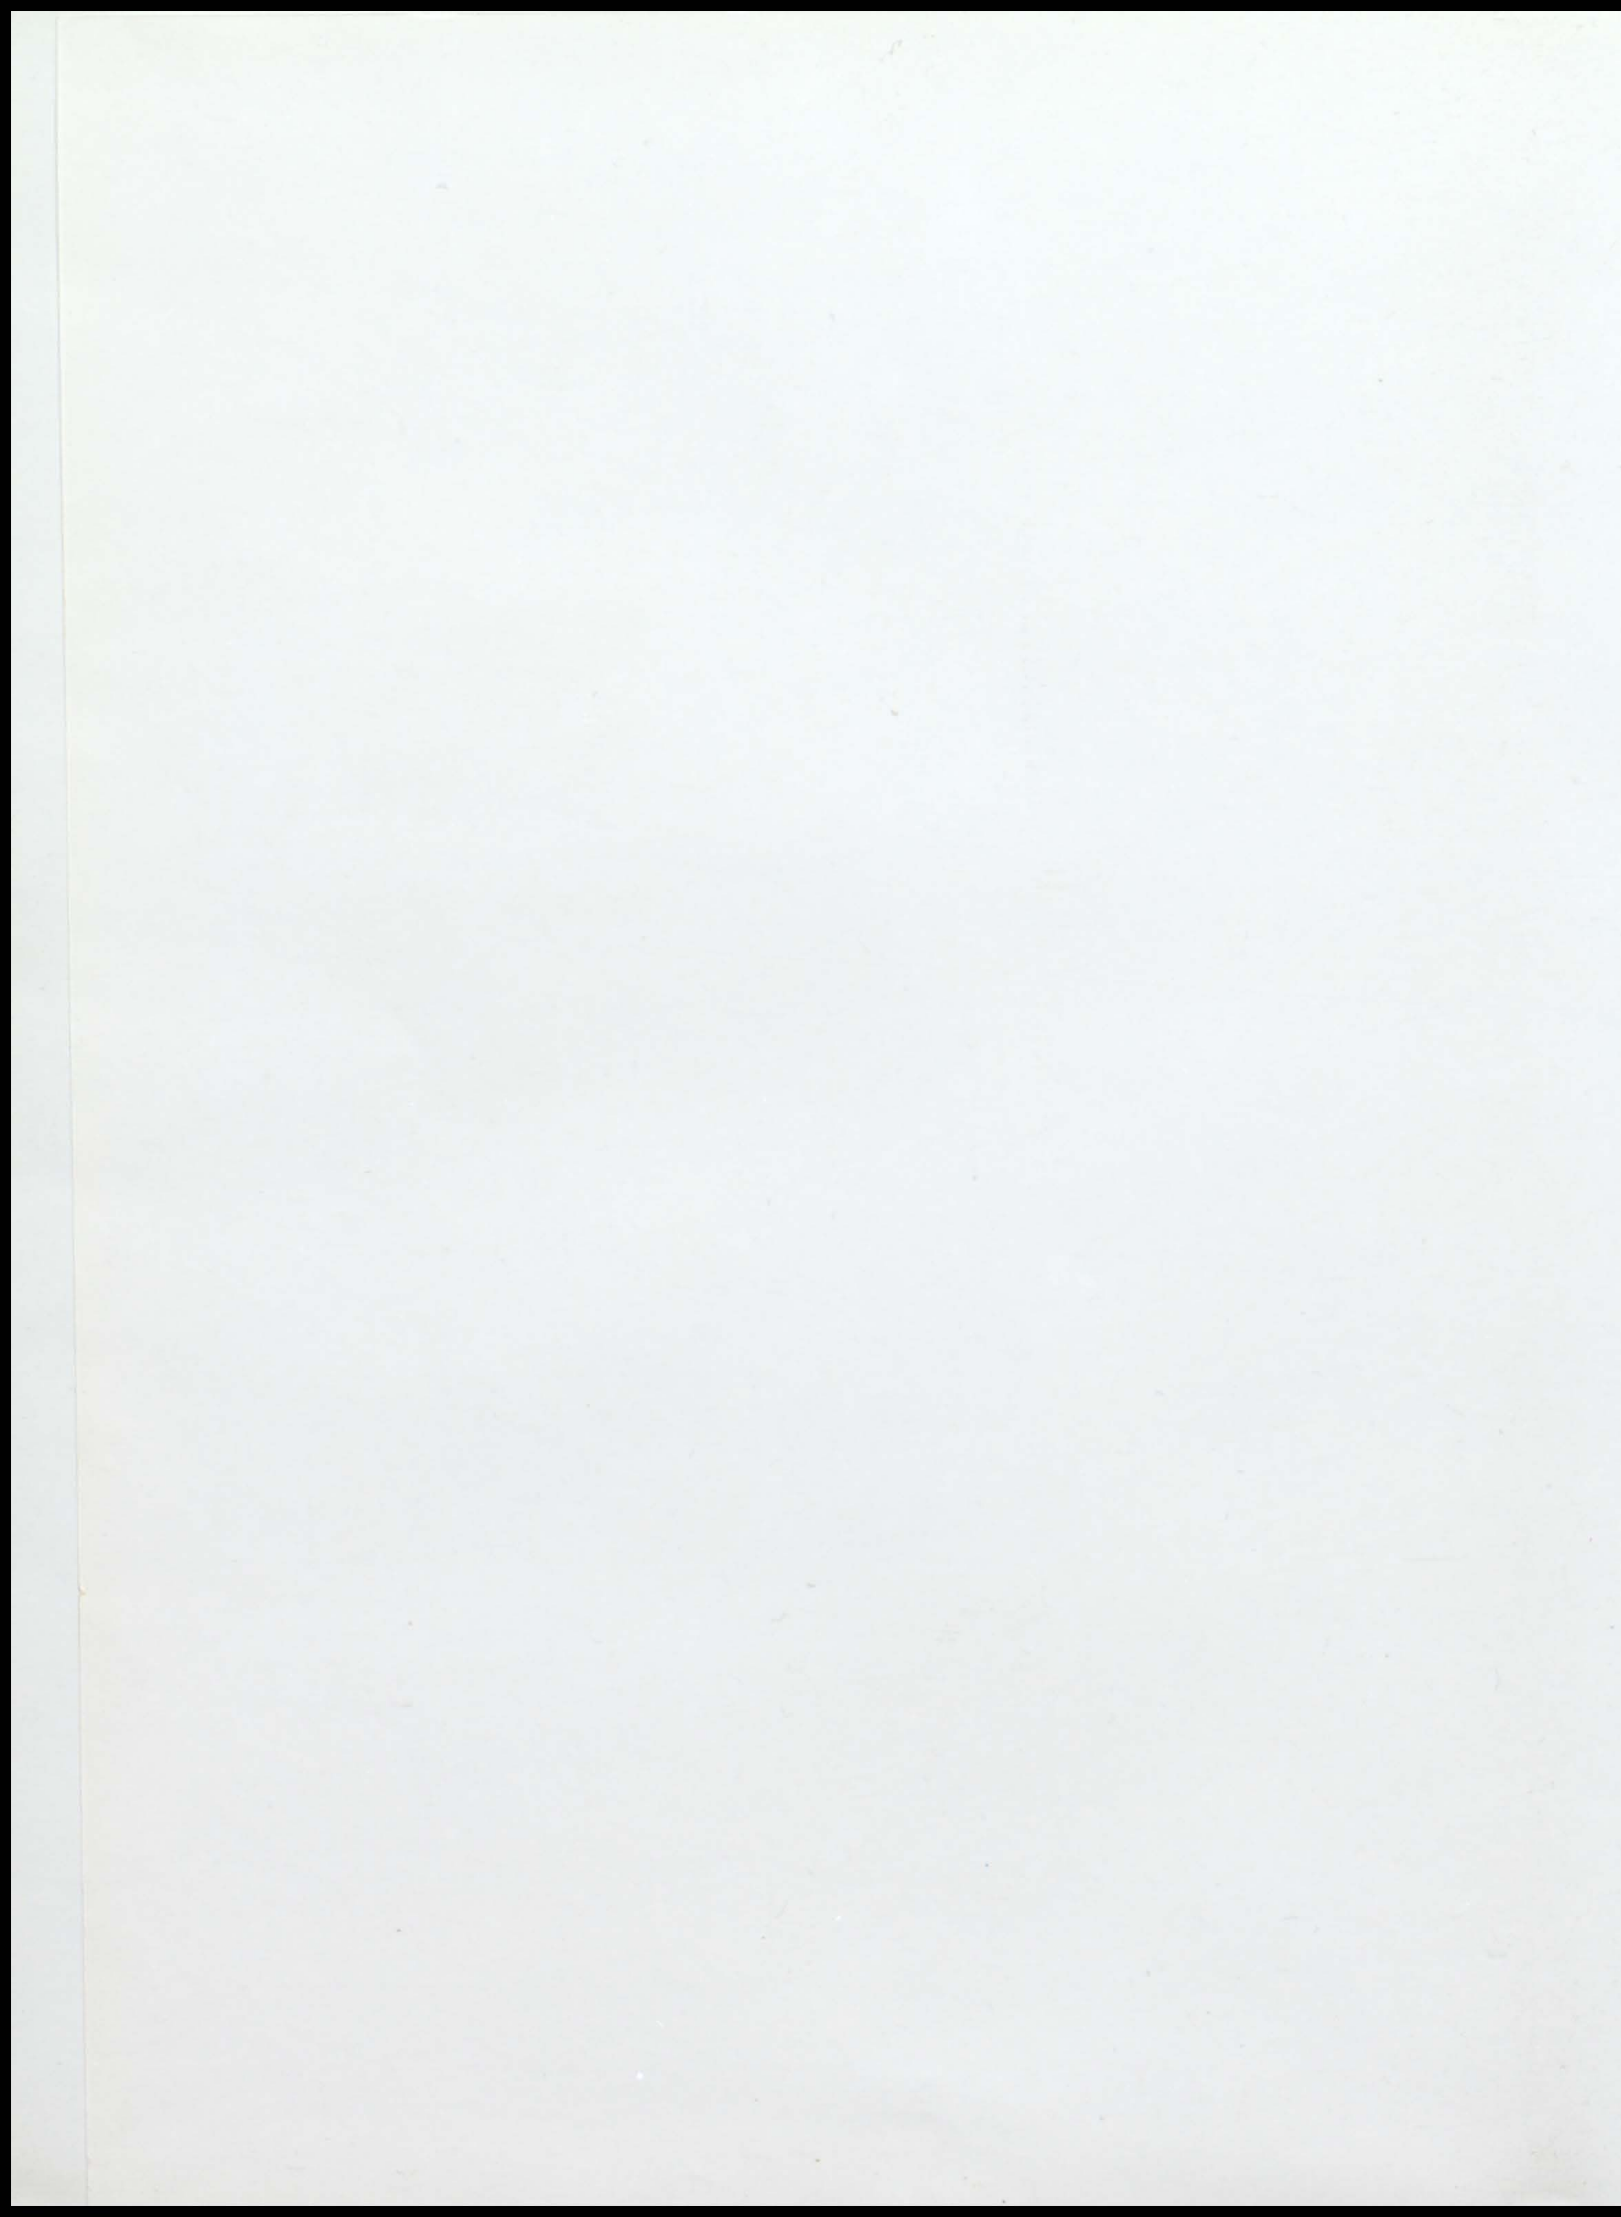

MR. STOKES VALUED THE TIME HE SPENT WITH HIS FAMILY AND FRIENDS.
